STATEMENT OF ADMINISTRATIVE RESPONSIBILITY

October 2, 2024

Management of the University is responsible for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements, the notes and all other financial information contained in this financial report.

Management has prepared the consolidated financial statements in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations. In order to achieve the objective of fair presentation in all material respects, reasonable estimates and professional judgements were used. Management believes the consolidated financial statements present fairly the University's financial position as at April 30, 2024, the consolidated statements of operations, changes in net assets and cash flows for the year then ended.

In fulfilling its responsibilities and recognizing the limits inherent in all systems, management has developed and maintains a system of internal control designed to provide reasonable assurance that University assets are safeguarded from loss and that the accounting records are a reliable basis for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements. The system of internal controls is monitored by the University's internal audit service.

The Board of Governors is responsible for ensuring that management fulfills its responsibilities for financial reporting and is ultimately responsible for reviewing and approving the consolidated financial statements. The Board of Governors carries out its responsibility for review of the consolidated financial statements principally through the Audit Committee. All members of the Audit Committee are not officers or employees of the University. The Audit Committee meets with management, the external auditors as well as the internal auditors, to discuss the results of audit examinations and financial reporting matters and to satisfy itself that each party is properly discharging its responsibilities. The external and internal auditors have full access to the Audit Committee with or without the presence of management.

The consolidated financial statements as at and for the year ended April 30, 2024 have been audited by KPMG LLP, Chartered Professional Accountants, Licensed Public Accountants, the auditors appointed by the Board of Governors. The independent auditors' report outlines the scope of their audit and their opinion on the preparation of the information included in the consolidated financial statements.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Governors of the University of Ottawa

Opinion

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of the University of Ottawa (the University), which comprise:

- the consolidated statement of financial position as at April 30, 2024
- the consolidated statement of operations for the year then ended
- the consolidated statement of changes in net assets for the year then ended
- the consolidated statement of cash flows for the year then ended
- and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies

(Hereinafter referred to as the “financial statements”).

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of the University as at April 30, 2024, and its consolidated results of operations, its consolidated changes in net assets and its consolidated cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the “Auditors’ Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements” section of our auditors’ report.

We are independent of the University in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in Canada and we have fulfilled our other responsibilities in accordance with these requirements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the University's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the University or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the University's financial reporting process.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion.

Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists.

Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of the financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.

We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the University's internal control.

- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the University's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditors' report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditors' report. However, future events or conditions may cause the University to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the group Entity to express an opinion on the financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Year ended April 30, 2024
(in thousands of dollars)

---

1. Objectives and purpose:

The University of Ottawa is a bilingual research intensive university offering undergraduate and graduate level education programs. The objectives of the University, as well as the powers of the Board of Governors and of the Senate, are defined in the University of Ottawa Act, 1965.

These consolidated financial statements include the following wholly owned subsidiaries: 45 Mann Limited Partnership and the University of Ottawa Community Legal Clinic. See note 19 for further details about these entities.

2. Significant accounting policies:

(a) Basis of presentation:

These consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations in Part III of the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada ("CPA Canada") Handbook - Accounting.

(b) Use of estimates:

The preparation of the consolidated financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenue and expenses in the consolidated financial statements. These estimates are reviewed annually and as adjustments become necessary they are recognized in the financial statements in the period in which they become known. Significant estimates include the accrued liabilities and the actuarial assumptions used in measuring pension and other post-employment benefits. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

(c) Revenue recognition:

The University follows the deferral method of accounting for contributions for not-for-profit organizations.

Externally restricted contributions are deferred and recognized as revenue in the period in which the related expenses are incurred. Externally restricted amounts can only be used for the purposes designated by external parties.

Unrestricted contributions are recognized as revenue when received or receivable if amounts can be reasonably estimated and collection is reasonably assured.

Pledges are recorded as revenue in the period in which they are received due to the uncertainty involved in their collection.

Investment income, excluding restricted investment income earned on endowments, is comprised of interest, dividends, income distributions from pooled funds and realized and unrealized gains and losses, and is recorded as revenue in the consolidated statement of operations.

Endowment contributions and restricted investment income earned on endowments and not available for disbursements are recognized as direct increases in net assets in the period in which they are received or earned. Investment income earned on endowments and available for spending are deferred and recognized as revenue in the period in which the related expenses are incurred.

Externally restricted contributions received for the purchase of capital assets are initially deferred and then amortized to revenue on a straight-line basis, at a rate corresponding to the amortization rate for the related capital asset.

Tuition and other fees are recognized as revenue based on the academic period of the related courses or programs.

Other types of revenue are recognized in the period the services are provided and goods are sold.

UNIVERSITY OF OTTAWA

Year ended April 30, 2024
(in thousands of dollars)2. Significant accounting policies (continued):*(d) Investments:

Investments are carried at fair value on initial recognition. Investments denominated in foreign currencies are translated using the exchange rate in effect at the consolidated statement of financial position date. The value of investments recorded in the consolidated financial statements is determined as follows:

- (i) Short-term investments include investments that can be withdrawn without prior notice or penalty. Short-term notes and treasury bills maturing within one year are stated at cost, which together with accrued interest income approximates fair value given the short-term nature of these investments.
- (ii) Equities, which are widely traded and have publicly quoted prices, are valued at the sale price last quoted during the year. The cost disclosed is determined on the average cost basis.
- (iii) Pooled funds for public market assets such as equities and bonds are valued at their year-end net asset value, representing the market value of the underlying financial instruments.
- (iv) Real estate and infrastructure investments are held in open or closed ended pooled funds or through securities of corporations or partnerships formed to invest in those assets. These private market investments are recorded at estimated fair values determined by external managers using appropriate industry valuation techniques or independent appraisers. Where applicable for real estate, a certified written appraisal from a qualified independent appraiser is required at least once every three years, as per investments policies. Development properties are carried at cost.
- (v) Hedging instruments are valued using pricing models that incorporate current market prices and the contractual prices of the underlying instruments, the time value of money and yield curves.
- (vi) Investment in wholly owned subsidiaries are accounted for using the equity method, whereby the investment is initially recorded at cost, transaction costs are capitalized, net of any impairment and adjusted thereafter for the University's share of the entity's net surplus or deficit and any further impairments. Any distributions received are accounted for as a reduction in the investment.

Transaction costs other than investments in wholly owned subsidiaries are recorded on a trade date basis and expensed as incurred.

(e) Capital assets:

Purchased capital assets are recorded at cost, except for land acquired prior to May 1, 2011 which is recorded at deemed cost, being fair value at May 1, 2011. Contributed capital assets are recorded at fair value at the date of contribution. Assets acquired under capital leases are amortized over the estimated life of the assets or over the lease term, as appropriate. Repairs and maintenance costs are expensed. Betterments, which extend the estimated life of an asset, are capitalized. When capital assets no longer contribute to the University's ability to provide services, their carrying amount is written down to their residual value. Construction-in-progress are carried at cost and not amortized during construction. Once completed, the assets are transferred into their related asset class and amortized based on their respective rates as per below.

Capital assets are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the asset no longer has any long-term service potential to the University. In this event, recoverability of assets held and used is measured by reviewing the estimated residual value of the asset. If the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its estimated residual value, an impairment charge is recognized by the amount by which the carrying amount of the asset exceeds the residual value of the asset. When a capital asset is written down, the corresponding amount of any unamortized deferred contributions related to the capital asset would be recognized as revenue, provided that all restrictions have been complied with.

(in thousands of dollars)

(e) Capital assets (continued):

Amortization is recorded on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of the assets at the rates indicated below:

Buildings	20 to 40 years
Books	5 years
Equipment and furniture	10 years
Computer software and equipment	3 and 10 years

Leasehold improvements are amortized on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the lease term or the estimated useful lives.

The value of library, art and other special collections have been included on the consolidated statement of financial position at a nominal value of $1.

(f) Foreign currency transactions:

Foreign currency transactions of the University are translated using the temporal method. Under this method transactions are initially recorded at the rate of exchange prevailing at the date of the transaction. Thereafter, monetary assets and liabilities are adjusted to reflect the exchange rates in effect at the consolidated statement of financial position date. Gains and losses resulting from the adjustment are included in the consolidated statement of operations.

(g) Employee future benefits:

The University maintains defined benefit plans providing pension and other retirement and post-employment benefits for eligible employees and accounts for these using the immediate recognition approach. Under this approach, the University recognizes the amount of the accrued obligation net of the fair value of plan assets in the consolidated statement of financial position.

Current service and finance costs are expensed during the year, while re-measurements and other items, representing the total of the difference between actual and expected return on plan assets, actuarial gains and losses, and past service costs, are recognized as a direct increase or decrease in net assets.

The accrued liability for funded employee future benefit plans is determined using a roll-forward technique to estimate the accrued liability using funding assumptions from the most recent actuarial valuation report prepared at least every three years. The accrued liability for unfunded plans is prepared on a basis consistent with funded plans. Employee future benefit plans' assets are measured at fair value as at the date of the consolidated statement of financial position.

The University also has a defined contribution plan providing pension benefits to some of its employees. The cost of the defined contribution plan is recognized based on the contributions required to be made during each period.

(in thousands of dollars)2. Significant accounting policies (continued):

(h) Derivative and other financial instruments:

Derivative financial instruments are used to manage particular market and currency exposures for risk management purposes primarily with respect to the University's investments and as a substitute for more traditional investments. Derivative financial instruments are carried at fair value, with changes in fair value during the year recorded in the consolidated statement of operations.

Transaction costs incurred on the acquisition of financial instruments are expensed as incurred.

The University follows hedge accounting for its interest rate swap which results in the interest expense related to certain long-term debt being recorded in the consolidated financial statements at the hedged rate rather than at the original contractual interest rate. At the inception of the hedging relationship, the University designates that hedge accounting will be applied. At the inception of the hedge and throughout its term, the terms of the hedging item and hedged item are the same. The fair value of the swap is not recorded on the consolidated statement of financial position but is disclosed in note 11.

Other financial instruments, including cash, accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued liabilities, and long-term debt are recorded at fair value upon initial recognition and are subsequently recorded at cost or amortized cost, net of any provisions for impairment, unless management has elected to carry the instruments at fair value.

Financial assets are assessed for impairment on an annual basis at the end of the fiscal year if there are indicators of impairment. If there is an indicator of impairment, the University determines whether there is a significant adverse change in the expected amount or timing of future cash flows from the financial asset. If there is a significant adverse change in the expected cash flows, the carrying value of the financial asset is reduced to the highest of the present value of the expected cash flows, the amount that could be realized from selling the financial asset or the amount the University expects to realize by exercising its right to any collateral. If events and circumstances reverse in a future period, an impairment loss will be reversed to the extent of the improvement, not exceeding the initial carrying value.

(i) Contributed services:

Contributed goods and services provided to the University are not recognized in these consolidated financial statements because of the difficulty in determining their fair value.

(j) Income taxes:

The University is a registered charity and is therefore exempt from income taxes under section 149 (1) (f) of the Income Tax Act (Canada).

6. Employee future benefits:

The University maintains defined benefit retirement plans for its eligible employees which provide a pension to employees based on their length of service and average earnings.

In addition to the University's pension plans, the University provides certain post-employment and post-retirement benefits ("other benefits") to eligible employees, and to their dependents under certain conditions, such as retirement allowances, life insurance, and health and dental benefits. A significant portion of the University's employees may become eligible for these benefits upon retirement. These other benefits are not funded. The calculation of pension and other benefits expense in accordance with the accounting policy is based on the current service cost of employee benefits and the finance cost on assets and liabilities.

The University presents the non-pension employee future benefits and the accrued pension plan assets separately on the Statement of Financial Position. The University does not have the ability to utilize the assets of pension benefit plans to fund the liabilities of other benefit plans.

The latest actuarial valuations were completed by an independent actuary as at January 1, 2024 for the pension plans and as at December 31, 2021 for the post-employment and post-retirement benefit plans. For financial statement purposes, the results of these valuations were extrapolated to April 30, 2024 which is the measurement date used to determine the plans' assets and the accrued benefit obligations. The next required filing date for an actuarial valuation is as of October 1, 2026 for the pension plans and as at December 31, 2024 for the post-employment and post-retirement benefit plans.

In 2018, the Ontario government revised the rules for the funding of single-employer defined benefit pension plans. Under the new rules, the margin set at the discretion of the University of Ottawa has been replaced with a prescribed Provision for Adverse Deviation ("PfAD"), a risk-based load factor applied to the best-estimate liabilities. The PfAD at April 30, 2024 is ($238,872) (2023 - ($163,750)) which represents 10.86% (2023 - 7.63%) of the pension plan's projected liability, excluding the value of future escalated adjustments.

Information about the University's employee future benefits is as follows:

Inflation rate	2.50%	-	3.70%	-

The University used mortality rates equal to 95% of the rates of the 2014 Public Sector Canadian Pensioners Mortality Table for actuarial assumptions, for fiscal years ending April 30, 2023 and 2024.

Details of annual contributions and benefits paid are as follows:

	2024		2023
	Pension benefit plans	Other benefit plans	Pension benefit plans	Other benefit plans

Benefits paid	$ 134,841	$ 5,293	$ 128,728	$ 6,380

The assumed discount rates and the rates of increase in future compensation used in determining the actuarial present value of the projected benefit obligations may vary according to the economic conditions.

The assumed health care trend rate used in measuring the accumulated post-employment benefits obligation in 2024 and for the next year is on average 5.0% and 4.0% thereafter (based on 5.0% per annum in 2020 grading down to 3.9% per annum in and after 2040 for drugs, 4.0% for dental fees and 4.0% for other medical fees).

Interest rate swaps

The University has entered into an interest rate swap agreement related to the variable rate loan on a student residence to minimize the impact on future cash flows of changes in interest rates. The University has designated the interest rate swap as a cash flow hedge, and has assessed it as highly effective.

The fair value of the interest rate swap at April 30, 2024 is estimated to be $164 (2023 - $409) which represents the amount the University would have to pay if the interest rate swap agreement was terminated on that date. The University is current with respect to the required payments under the loan and interest rate swap agreement.

Sinking fund

A voluntary sinking fund has been established to provide funds to repay the debentures principal upon maturity. As of April 30, 2024, the balance of the sinking fund including the accrued investment income is $123,426 (2023 - $110,576). This amount is included in long-term investments and in internally restricted net assets (note 12).

13. Endowments:

Endowments funds are composed of restricted donations received by the University and the accumulated investment income not yet distributed. The University may have the right, with donor's consent, to subsequently remove the designation as endowment. Donations that have been internally designated as endowments are accounted for as transfers. Investment returns generated from endowments are used in accordance with the various purposes established by the donors or by the University in the exercise of its discretion. The University protects the future purchasing power of its endowments by designating a portion of the annual investment income earned to endowments, known as capital protection. Accordingly, the University has established a policy of setting the amount of income available for spending to 3.5% (2023 - 3.5%) of the last 12 quarters market value moving average. The purpose of this policy is to allow the University to distribute a consistent amount of income from endowments on an annual basis regardless of the investment income earned in the fiscal year.

Activities in the endowments were as follows:

	2024	2023

16. Inter-institutional research and other agreements:

These expenses consist of amounts delivered to related research institutions and other partners in relation to agreements settled between the University and the partners and in respect of which the University is the main contractor. An equivalent revenue is recorded in restricted grants and contracts revenue as research related activities.

17. Commitments and contingent liabilities:

Self-insurance

The nature of the University's activities is such that there are usually claims or potential claims in prospect at any one time. As at April 30, 2024, the University believes that it has valid defences and appropriate insurance coverage in place on certain claims that are not expected to have a material impact on the University's financial position. There also exist other claims or potential claims where the ultimate outcome cannot be determined at this time. Any additional losses related to claims would be recorded in the year during which the amount of the liability can be estimated or adjustments to the amount recorded are required.

Litigation

The University is involved with pending litigation and claims which arise in the normal course of operations. In management's opinion, the University has valid defenses and appropriate insurance coverage in places that are not expected to have a material impact on the University's financial position. There also exists other claims or potential claims where the ultimate outcome cannot be determined at this time. Any additional losses related to claims would be recorded in the year during which the amount of the liability can be estimated or adjustments to the amount recorded are determined to be required.

Contractual commitments

The University has undertaken the construction and renovation projects on some of its facilities. As at April 30, 2024, the University has outstanding commitments for such projects for approximately $249,029 (2023 - $42,618).

Obligation under operating lease

Year ended April 30, 2024
(in thousands of dollars)18. Financial instruments:

There has been no significant change to the risk exposures during the year.

(a) Market risk:

Market risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate. Market risk comprises three types of risk: currency risk, interest rate risk and price risk.

(i) Foreign currency risk:

Foreign currency exposure arises from the University's holdings of foreign equities and bonds. Currency hedging may be used to reduce the risk from fluctuations of foreign currency exchange rates, as defined in the University's Statement of Investment Policies and Goals (SIPG).

(ii) Interest rate risk:

The University is exposed to interest rate risk on its fixed interest rate financial instruments. Further details about the fixed rate investments are included in notes 3 and 5 and for long-term debt in note 11.

(iii) Price risk:

Price risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices (other than those arising from interest rate risk or currency risk). The University is exposed to these risks in connection with its holdings of domestic and foreign equities (including pooled funds), as well as through its investments in real estate and infrastructure.

(b) Credit risk:

Credit risk relates to the potential that one party to a financial instrument will fail to discharge an obligation and cause the other party to incur a financial loss. The University's SIPG, which is reviewed annually, defines permitted investments and provides guidelines and restrictions on acceptable investment categories which minimize credit risk.

The maximum credit exposure of the University is represented by the fair value of the investments and accounts receivable as presented in the consolidated statement of financial position.

Credit risk concentration exists where a significant portion of the portfolio is invested in securities which have similar characteristics or similar variations relating to economic, political or other conditions. The University has a well diversified investment portfolio which prevent credit risk concentration. The financial health of its investments is monitored on an on-going basis with the assistance of its Finance and Treasury Committee of the Board of Governors and its investment advisors.

(c) Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the University will be unable to fulfill its obligations on a timely manner or at a reasonable cost. The University manages its liquidity risk by monitoring its operating requirements. The University prepares budgets and cash forecasts to ensure it has sufficient funds to fulfill its obligations.
