

Health Sciences Laboratory Animal Services

This is to certify that

Yiqing Huang

has successfully completed the

Part 2 Species Required Training In The Mouse

April 26, 2019

A handwritten signature in blue ink, reading "Tracey Colman", written over a horizontal line.

Course Instructor
Health Sciences Lab Animal Services University of Alberta

Syllabus and Competency Record

Module and Wet Lab Components

Module and lab will cover:

- Basic biology,
- Husbandry,
- Handling/restraint,
- Euthanasia, (CO₂ in lab),
- Zoonosis
- And human safety regarding use of the mouse model in research.

Wet Lab Components

Handling and Sexing

- Complete a health assessment and physical examination on the mouse.
- Identify and review stress / abnormal behavior / pain assessment in this species.
- Must be able to identify sex of the animals, demonstrate humane handling and restraint of the species.

Euthanasia

- Co₂ euthanasia completed,
- Other acceptable methods will be discussed.
- Student must be able to confirm death has occurred.

For more information regarding this program, please contact the HSLAS Training Coordinator at (780) 492-5138

Retain this record as proof of training